The novel tells the story of two brothers, Michael and Patrick, who are born to the same mother but have very different fathers. Michael is the legitimate son of a wealthy landowner, while Patrick is the illegitimate son of a poor farmer. Despite their different backgrounds, the two brothers are close friends and confidants.

However, their bond is tested when Michael falls in love with a woman named Mary. Mary is also in love with Patrick, and the two of them begin a secret affair. When Michael finds out, he is devastated. He confronts

Patrick, and the two brothers fight. In the heat of the moment, Michael kills Patrick.

Michael is arrested for murder, and he is sentenced to death. Patrick's ghost haunts Michael, and he is eventually driven to madness. He dies in prison, a broken man.

Brothers Born Of One Mother is a tragic story of love, loss, and betrayal. It is a story that explores the complex relationships between family members and the lengths that people will go to protect the ones they love.
