aspect of any society. Literature reflects the functioning of the society and portrays it in the literate national and the international community. For this reason, the literature writing has to be done very cautiously taking all the factual and theoretical factors under consideration. Moreover, the author has very efficiently considered the writing ethics in the book deliberately. Writing ethics should be brought into consideration by any writer before writing any piece of literature. It is the most significant element which overrides all other elements of writing (Baym & Levine, 2012) (Nina Baym is the author / writer of this book. Since the writer herself is a famous literary historian, therefore she understands the American writing and reading in the best possible manner, whereas Levine is master in American and African American literature. His thirty years of experience comes in hand with this piece of writing in which he has discussed his experience and the influential methods for writing).

With an Ambition of American Literature is so relevant as audience. There are different angles through which the authors have tried to emphasize on the techniques of writing literature and what it takes. These elements have been efficiently discussed and elaborated by Nina Baym in this book. Nina Baym is a well-known literary historian. She has presented her services as Professor of English at the University of Illinois (1963-2004). She has been credited for a variety of work on the literary criticism and history. She has not only written this particular book, but has been credited for numerous masterpieces of American Literary Criticism and History. Baym has served as the General Editor for the Series Anthology of American Literatures since 1991 (Baym & Levine, 2012).

Similarly, Robert S. Levine is a notable and famous personality in the literary circle. He is a professor at the Department of English, University of Maryland. This is not just his only
