World War II and the Korean War were two of the most brutal and devastating conflicts in human history. Millions of soldiers were taken prisoner during these wars, and many of them faced unimaginable hardships. But even in the darkest of times, there were stories of hope and courage. These are the stories of the men and women who dared to escape from captivity.

In this book, you will read about some of the most daring and successful escapes from World War II and the Korean War. You will meet:

- Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, a Medal of Honor recipient who escaped from a German POW camp during World War I

- Colonel John "Hap" Arnold, the commander of the US Army Air Forces during World War II, who escaped from a Japanese POW camp
- Lieutenant Colonel James Doolittle, the leader of the Doolittle Raid on Tokyo, who escaped from a Japanese POW camp
- Sergeant Mike Murphy, a US Marine who escaped from a Korean POW camp
- Lieutenant Robert Shaw, a US Navy pilot who escaped from a Korean POW camp

These are just a few of the many stories that are included in this book. Each story is a testament to the human spirit's ability to overcome adversity. These men and women faced incredible challenges, but they never gave up hope. Their stories are an inspiration to us all.
