SUCCESS STORY

APPLYING THE EGIDA METHODOLOGY TO A SERIES OF WEBINARS AS A PILOT CASE

The goal of the webinar case was to make dissemination benefit from using the form of webinar for EU lectures. Remote presentation of, and participation in lectures are an educational, interactive tool that enables reaching an audience that is really interested in the subject, regardless of the geographical distance, as it was really important in Policy-Maker situation.

The EGIDA methodology that is a set of purposes and guidelines for a sustainable contribution to Global Earth Observation Systems of Systems (EOSS) has been applied to the "series of webinars" case. Further assessment and adaptation has been done.

The EGIDA case for the "series of webinars" initiative started in 2011. The main definition is obvious while news justify the need of a webinar and difficult to define for all potential stakeholders. The selected networking and training activities were chosen and applied.

EGIDA gave feedback on applying the methodology for the lecture. This will allow EUROPEAN partners to refine and improve the EGIDA methodology.

KEYS TO SUCCESS

- GUIDANCE
Easy access to the well-elaborated EGIDA Methodology study.
- PILOT DEFINITION
Well-defined concept of the service of webinars.
- SERIES OF WEBINARS STRATEGY
The webinar form for EU lectures is an outstanding solution and it is only possible way to actually overcome a situation, such as the political crisis in Ukraine.

RESULT

➤ The EGIDA Methodology has been confirmed for the "series of webinars" use case.
