Jurisdictional Battles and Choice of Law

One of the most challenging aspects of international trust disputes is determining which jurisdiction has the authority to hear the case and which law will apply. Birzer thoroughly analyzes the complex rules governing jurisdiction and choice of law, providing a clear understanding of the factors that courts consider.

He also explores the impact of international conventions, such as the Hague Convention on the Law Applicable to Trusts, and discusses the strategies for establishing or challenging jurisdiction in cross-border trust litigation.

Enforcing Foreign Judgments

Obtaining a judgment in an international trust dispute is only the first step. Enforcing that judgment in another country can be a daunting task. Birzer provides a practical guide to the recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments, outlining the legal requirements and procedures involved.

He analyzes the role of the Hague Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments and discusses the challenges and opportunities associated with enforcing foreign judgments in different jurisdictions.

Trust Litigation Strategies

Birzer goes beyond legal analysis to offer practical advice on developing effective litigation strategies for international trust disputes. He explores the procedural and tactical considerations that attorneys must take into account, including:

- Discovery and evidence gathering
- Cross-border Download service of process
- Expert witness testimony
- Settlement negotiations

Case Studies and Real-World Examples

Birzer's analysis is supported by numerous case studies and real-world examples, providing readers with a deeper understanding of the practical application of legal principles.
